

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Pamela G. Reilly will retire on December 2, 2011, with over 34 years of federal service; and,

Whereas, Pam began her career in 1976 with USDA Rural Development as a temporary clerk typist. In 1980, she worked for the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Fort Meade, and in January 1984, she returned to Rural Development and advanced her career as a Rural Housing Technician, Multi-Family Housing Assistant, and for the past 14 years as the Multi-Family Housing Coordinator; and,

Whereas, Pam has seen the agency through many transitions including the conversion from typewriters to computers and has distinguished herself in the Multi-Family Housing field; and,

Whereas, Pam's assistance to the field office staff has helped to improve the livelihood of the very-low and low income, elderly, and family residents of the Rural Development apartment complexes across South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Pam enjoys fishing, genealogy, volunteering at church, and spending time with her grandchildren and retirement will afford her more valuable time with her husband, Mike, son, Josh, daughter and son-in-law, Jill and Chad, and grandchildren; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to honor Pam on this momentous occasion and thank her for her outstanding service to the people of South Dakota:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 2, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, colleagues, and friends as they recognize Pam for her commitment to a successful career and extend best wishes for a healthy and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
